

CPHC Conference: 7th-8th April 2014

CPHC Business, Guest Presentations and AGM

Professor Liz Bacon BSc, PhD, CEng, CSci, FBCS, CITP, FHEA

Professor Liz Bacon is a Deputy Pro-Vice-Chancellor at the University of Greenwich with a University wide remit leading the development of Technology Enhanced Learning. She is President of the BCS, a past Chair of the BCS Academy of Computing, and CPHC (Council of Professors and Heads of Computing) national committee. She is / has been involved in many professional activities during her career which include working with e-skills UK, the Science Council, Parliamentary IT Committee (PITCOM) and EQANIE (European Quality Assurance Network for Informatics Education).

Prof Bacon is a Co-Director of the eCentre research group and has been involved in eLearning, software engineering, and crisis management research for more than 10 years. She is an experienced systems designer and developer, with the bulk of her research and practice activity being directly industry facing, through knowledge transfer and consultancy.