Julia Adamson (B Ed. Hons.)

Managing Director – Education & Public Benefit, BCS, The Chartered Institute for IT

Once a teacher herself, Julia has a track record of successfully leading education and technology programmes and established Barefoot Computing across the UK. Julia leads BCS’s Education and Public Benefit entity, the goal is to influence and improve computing education in all its forms to improve opportunities for young people, society, and the economy, and to create a diverse talent pipeline, inspiring significantly more careers in IT and digital roles. Julia’s remit at BCS encompasses, BCS Academy of Computing, the Learned Society, Academic Accreditation, Student and University Membership, Teacher Certification, Education Policy and PR, a portfolio of educator and student inspiration and progression activities including CAS and Barefoot, and My Digital Future, a new support and bursary programme for students facing challenging circumstances.